

Patti Handy

Money Coach and author, Patti Handy, received her Bachelor's degree in Accounting, followed by a combined twenty-five years in the banking and mortgage arena. A past holder of the Series 7 and Series 63 licenses, she has most recently served as a Senior Mortgage Advisor for over 8 years. She holds a California Real Estate Brokers License and is a CTA Certified Life Coach.

In addition to her extensive work experience, she credits the invaluable lessons that her parents taught her at a very young age as the true gift. Understanding the importance of learning money management early, she is passionate about sharing her financial wisdom with teens and young adults so they too, will be empowered with money smarts.

As a speaker, author and founder of Teens Cash Coach™, she is determined to reach one million teens. From school assemblies to boot camps for teens, she engages, entertains and empowers teens to create the life they deserve. Patti's quick wit and sense of humor make all her presentations interesting and fun experiences for teens.

A portion of the proceeds from her book, How to Ditch your Allowance and be Richer than your Parents, is donated to Childrens Hospital Los Angeles. Learn more about her 10 hour DVD money school, The Prosperous Teen and her Millionaire in the Making-Biz Building Bootcamps for Teens by visiting www.teenscashcoach.com.
