

Rod Warren “The Common Sense Money Manager” is elected by many as one of the youngest nation’s top Business & Financial Expert. He is President and CEO of his own Personal & Business Development Company, Warren Global LLC. He is also an Motivational Speaker, Real Estate Investor and Author. Rod’s sole purpose in life is to see others achieve true financial freedom that radically impacts their lives, purpose, giving and relationships.

It has not always been peaches and cream for this young man of vision. He knows first-hand what it is like to drink from the cup of financial bondage. By the tender age of twenty-five he had earned well over a half-million dollars, just to see it all go down the drain due to mismanagement and financial dysfunction. He has since re-established his financial foundation, and dedicated himself to the call of helping others around the world climb out of the financial hole.

He desires to teach others how to become what he calls, a ‘Financial Super Star!’

Rod is the creator of the Ultimate Credit Repair Manual, Release The Dream, and The War On Debt Movement Workshops, which were designed to empower people to live a debt-free and purposeful life. These Live Events are being held year-round in churches, non-profit organizations, high schools, colleges, and corporate workplace settings.

After completing 4 years in the United States Navy, Rod earned a Bachelor’s Degree from Baylor University in Waco, Texas. He now travels the country speaking at live conferences and large scale events, teaching and empowering others on topics ranging from Debt Release, Ultimate Credit Score to Financial Planning. His heart-felt presentations challenge you to tap into the awesome power within that will change not only your finances but also your life!
