

Knowledge Built to Inspire Positive Financial Action

The curriculum employs evidence-based educational methods, including project-based learning, learner's choice assignments, instructional scaffolding, simulation, blended learning, and other instructional methods proven to improve student outcomes.

Developed by the National Financial Educators Council; the materials have been tested through thousands of organizations and used by leading universities. The programming has been widely recognized for its ability to connect and inspire participants to take positive financial action.

Gain Financial Security – Register Now!

Do nothing and live an average life or register now to pick up the money skills needed to live an extraordinary life.

Need-to-Know Investing

Gaining confidence in your ability to navigate the financial markets can help you secure your future and support your family.

5432 Any Street West
Townsville, State 54321
555.543.5432 ph
555.543.5433 fax

Financial Security

Join us to pick up the investing knowledge and skills needed to enjoy the lifestyle you want and achieve long-term financial security. You'll graduate this course with a personal financial plan and know the steps that can help you build a solid financial foundation.

real investments
for real people

Master Your Money

The single biggest difference between financial success and financial failure is how well you manage your money. It's simple: to master money, you must manage money.

Bringing Down Barriers to Success

Our focus is on increasing access to financial education programming and advocating for the cause. A personal finance company that breaks down barriers to implementing a financial education program by providing the resources and expertise that lower the cost per impact so the program can scale.

Meet the People Behind the Program

The program director, Jonathan Wills, is a Certified Financial Education Consultant. Having completed over 240 Professional Development Hours of training and successfully implementing programs for [clients you served] makes [him/her] amongst the most qualified in promoting and implementing financial education programming.

The education technology assets used through this program developed by the National Financial Educators Council's. This interactive education platform delivers practical lessons that meet core educational standards. The flexible design accommodates a variety of schedules and learning outcomes.

Gain Financial Security Register Now!

Do nothing and live an average life or register now to pick up the money skills needed to live an extraordinary life.