

UNLV

CAEO Financial Literacy Conference

Learn how to enjoy life now, while you also plan for a secure future.

Discover how saving money can help you achieve your desired lifestyle.

Explore ways to minimize student loan debt and pay it off effectively.

Learn how to pursue your passions and work toward your financial goals.

Date & Location

Friday, September 18th, 2020,
Virtual Event

Choose the morning or afternoon session

Morning Session

Conference begins
at 9:00 am

Afternoon Session

Conference begins
at 1:00 pm

Register Complimentary at

<http://bit.ly/caeoUNLV>

Nathan Nguyen

Keynote Presentation

Get inspired with Nathan's story of going from welfare to multi-millionaire that was featured in the Chicken Soup for the Soul series. Gain an understanding of the steps he took and how you can follow in his footsteps.

Breakout Presentation

If you're looking to enjoy independence and gain the ability to live the lifestyle you want – attending this program is a must. Learn how to minimize student loan debt, automate your budget for housing, transportation and daily life.

About

Nathan Nguyen is a financial educator dedicated to solving social economic problems. His best-selling book, Money Smarts, and Money Simulation Game has become a key resource for college students making financial life choices.

Secure your spot now to gain your financial independence.

Visit now to register: <http://bit.ly/caeoUNLV>

